RED CROSS WEEK

Englewood Commercial and Civic Association Appoint Week to Be Honored.

The Englewood Commercial and Civic association has decided to devote the week beginning October 22 to the benefit of the grandest organization ever founded, the immortal Red Cross, and every business firm under the association's influence will devote a percentage of the gross receipts of its business to the Red Cross fund.

This voluntary contribution of business men in all parts of Englewood to the merciful purposes of the Red Cross will, we are sure, net a handsome fund for the good cause, and we hope to see the announcement in every window that they are patriotic enough to contribute a small percentage of the week's receipts to so good a fund.

All business men may secure the necessary stamps and instructions by applying at Secretary Elmer Tyner's office, 344 West 63d St., or phone him, Wentworth 57.

Some of the Soldier Boys Homesick.

A feature of the making of the army is the lonesomeness and homesickness of many of the young boys who are away from home for the first time, and the experiences at the camp, after their novelty has worn off, are a bit wearing on them. The loving care of mother and sister, or someone else's sister, is missed, and some of the lads write a bit dolefully of their fate. Parents and friends should not be alarmed at this phase in the career of the making of a soldier; it comes to every one who has ever left a good home and luxurious surroundings to take up the severe routine and discipline so necessary in the making of a soldier. A month or less, from now these same boys that are pitying themselves will be the huskiest, liveliest lot of young larks ever caged in Illinois, their old-time sprightliness and happy natures will assert themselves, and they will be ambitious and anxious to make a good showing for their command and their state. It is some "parting of the ways" for a boy to leave a home where he was a very important character, to become simply a unit in a great army.

Harvey Gauble has moved from 666 63d St. to 6719 Union Ave.

Helping Run the State.

Ye Editor Goes to Springfield to Help the Governor Run the Old State and Look After Divers Others Things.

Any improvement that may be noticed in the Times this week, is probably due to the fact that the hired help are doing it alone, while I have gone to Springfield to render Governor Lowden any assistance he may need in defending the state. Right here I want to say that whatever assistance he may need he will get, as he is a humdinger on selecting the best men for his advisers and then does things right off the bat without any caviling, or peanut politics about it. The sorry equipment for the soldier boys that assembled here was a case in point. Governor Lowden simply said, "The boys can't freeze, get them blankets" and the blankets were forthcoming charged to his individual account. The men needed them and that settled it, they got them.

I don't want to be fulsome in my praise, but a pretty extensive acquaintance in the state capital and other parts of the state, convinces me that Frank Lowden is making the most popular as well as the most efficient governor we have ever had. While a sterling Republican, he is not of the breed that would impede President Wilson's policy because he is a Democrat. Politics in its spoilsmen sense has little hold in Springfield now, and the hungry hoard who demanded that even the civil service appointees give way to the husky, lucky politician, have retired defeated, and convinced that Governor Lowden will not stand for the spoilsman and demands that every state employee give a day's work every day for every day's salary. As a result every department of the state is being run as a well-regulated business concern, the employees depending solely on their merits and more and better work is done than ever before in the history of the state.

It had been raining this morning and suddenly I thought things grew brighter, and I prepared to greet the sunshine, but it was simply Charley Vail, the clerk of the supreme court, coming around the capitol corner. Charley brings as much sunshine as the weather man, and every one knows his brand of smile. I once asked a small newsboy where I could find Mr. Vail's office, and he answered, "Hully chee, that's de guy whot always gives yr the smile, an' runs the whole show over at the soopreeme cote buildin'. I should say I does know him, they use his sunny smile to raise flowers in the park." I might mention incidentally that the records of the court, for the first time in many years, are kept up to the day and are in splendid shape, receiving the praise of the court as well as the bar.

Many of the Englewood people who were here have gone since I was here last. Professor Armstrong's son has joined the engineering corps and gone to the front. Mr. Lyon, who was superintendent of building at the capitol, has been a victim of political expediency and retired. Harleigh Hartman is making a record for himself in digesting the reports for the board of public utilities commission. Capt. A. I. Simmons provides the cats and sustenance for such of the army as is stationed here in his capacity of quartermaster. There are other Englewood people here whom I have not had the pleasure of meeting as yet, but as the legislature is "on vacation" it is rather dull about the state house, except in the adjutant general's office and he is as busy as two men should be.

Springfield is very beautiful now. The big trees that line every street and byway, are beginning to change color, and the rich golden tints of autumn give the scene a soft radiance that is colorful and most fascinating. It is a pretty place to live in; probably not the hustle and bustle of old Chicago, still not a dead town by any means. The recent strike is over forever, I hope, and the sensible workers are realizing that a strike in America now is a strike for the kaiser in effect, and their patriotism has prompted the men to go back to work. I visited a coal yard today and my friend bought beautiful lump coal at $3 per ton delivered. It was the cleanest and most regular fuel I had seen in years, and if the supply holds out Springfield will be well able to keep warm this winter. And, by the way, if they can get such excellent coal for $3 a ton delivered, why should we be compelled to pay twice that price with only a 200-mile haul, with half a dozen roads competing?

On the way down here I noticed the immense crops of corn and the farmers with whom I talked tell me the frost has done it no harm. With the distilleries at Peoria stopped in their greedy maws, there should be cornflappers and johnnicake for every one in the Sucker state this winter, after sending our friends across the sea all they may need.

The new addition to the capitol, or the Illinois Centennial building as it is called, will be started early next spring. It will occupy the large tract south of the capitol. The old residences are being removed to Second street which becomes a handsome residence district. The foundation for the Lincoln monument on the state-house grounds is underway, and it will be erected next year sometime during the centennial celebration.

The Edward's Art gallery is the social center as there is now in addition to the regular exhibit a fine display of N. Brewer and his sons, as well as other contemporary artists' work, and it is flattering to note the number of appreciative visitors each day.

The weather here is much warmer than in Chicago, and this week we are enjoying a typical "Indian summer." The pretty Washington park, with it's red shale drives, is very attractive, as are many drives about the city. As I have said before, the courtly courtesy and kindliness of the real people of Springfield makes one think they are visiting the old South "befo' the wah, sah," and every one knows every one else upon the slightest excuse, and you are made to feel at home in short order. Even the surpassing modesty of ye editor has been overcome to some extent, and he has been known to speak to several without putting his finger in his mouth.

Governor Lowden has not signified in what way I can be of the most assistance to him in his present strenuous war efforts, but friend wife suggests that I may help him most by staying away from him, and I am doing that industriously.

GERALD E. SULLIVAN.

False Sympathy With Criminals.

A great part of the crime in the city of Chicago, if not in the nation, is due to the maudlin sentimentality of gushing and slop-over persons who see in every arrest the tyranny of officials. From the man who steals an auto to the treacherous individual that dynamites a manufactory, each and all have their sympathizers who on stage, pulpit or in print rush to their rescue and do all they can to thwart justice in meeting out to them proper punishment. We believe in the liberty of the press and liberty of speech, but treasonable utterances are treason just as well in the pulpit as in the barroom, and coming from the lips of a millionaire's wife are as venomous and injurious as from the virulent I. W. W. or anarchist. Crime in all degrees should be punished, not as a revenge on the criminal, but to deter others from committing crime, and the city, county, state and nation should wipe out these false notoriety seekers who rush to the rescue of criminals of all classes. A firing squad and a stone wall is the just deserts of all kinds of traitors, and the bridewell and penitentiary for the lesser criminals. This making heroes of prison birds should be stopped, and we should uphold the law and the executives, be they the president or the lowly copper on his beat. We have the laws, let them be enforced regardless of the bleatings of the sentimental Tommys or Marias. If a person is guilty let him be punished as he should, and immediately.

Union and Lowe Aves. Should Be Opened Through.

One cause of congestion on 63rd St. is that there is no street running north from 63rd to 61st Sts. between Halsted and Stewart Ave. for traffic, and Normal Blvd. is the only driving street. We have agitated this matter, whole pages full, and receive many indorsements of our course, but no concerted action has been taken to begin the good work. A public meeting of all interested should be called and the Thirty-first ward aldermen asked to attend and outline a policy that will bring about results. The opening through of these streets would double the value of abutting property and be a great convenience to every one, besides wiping out the dead and dark blocks between Halsted and Wallace Sts. Get action at once, and have them opened this winter, ready for traffic next spring.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF ENGLEWOOD.

64th St. and Yale Ave. Pastor, Rev. Willard H. Robinson, D. D. 6530 Lafayette Ave.

At the Englewood Presbyterian church in the morning at 10:30, Dr. Robinson will speak on "The Drill of the Soldier and the Drill of the Soul." Raw Recruits are said sometimes to wonder at the persistency with which their officers repeat the same commands and require the same motions over and over again. The men must do these things without thought until they do them, and in the din of battle, as mere automatons. There they can be handled and flung as a single living thing against the enemy. The fact to be noted is that good military habits render the soldier an efficient military tool. It is not different with the soul. The value of a structure of good habits is not simply to keep the man in the path of ordinary morality. It is rather to furnish a basis for higher spiritual action, to make the soul a tool of God. So truly are they tools that genius values them only as means for carving out a victory. In like manner the good man of Christ's type is sure to do no low or bestial thing. He can be counted on to observe the ten commandments. But he can be counted on for much more. He the combining and creative genius of love and its campaigning aggressiveness.

Benefit Performance.

A benefit performance will be given under the auspices of the Alter Chapter of the St. Bartholomew's church at the Harvard's beautiful theater, Tuesday, October the 23rd, both at the matinee and evening programs. The benefit was arranged for and under the management of Mr. James E. Coston, the popular manager of the popular theatre. A special selected program has been secured. The ever-popular Jack Pickford and Miss Louise Huff will be seen in "The Ghost House." The most popular boy and girl combination on the screen today. A sure winner wherever they appear. This is a worthy cause and should be patronized liberally.

In "The Ghost House" there is a situation unique. There isn't a ghost in the picture, and yet both Jack Pickford and Louise Huff and everybody else in the picture think they see ghosts.

The college atmosphere, and the mystery of the old (supposedly haunted) house which Mr. Atwell left to his nieces is a theme which is full of charm as well, and ought to prove interesting not only to the grown-ups but to the children.

Englewood High School Notes.

The Liberty loan fund has now grown to $400. If we are to reach our goal by Christmas everyone must contribute more liberally. Do your bit and help the cause along!

On Tuesday, October 16, a celebration was held in Junior hall. A large number of enthusiastic Boosters were present. The next Englebooster dance will be held Friday, October 9, in Odd Fellows' hall.

The Englebooster association now has 1,250 paid-up members. There are 15 other organizations of similar order in the Chicago high school system, but none of them can boast of near as good a record. Englewood should be proud of such an organization.

A party was held on Friday, October 12, for the freshmen class. A large number turned out to enjoy the program prepared for them. Refreshments were served. After spending a very pleasant afternoon the members of '21 departed for their respective homes, determined to play their part and to do their best for Englewood.

Englewood high school has taken a very active part in bringing books for the soldiers' library. Miss Pendry, the school librarian, has collected in all 459 good books. Of this number room 29 contributed 66. They are to be congratulated for their patriotic efforts. Junior hall contributed 106 and Senior hall 45. Englewood has her reward in her realization of the cheer those books will bring to lonesome Sammies.

Last Saturday Englewood's football team played its first league game of the season at Harrison Tech. It was a fight every step of the way. Englewood yielded to Harrison's boys after four quarters of snappy play. The final score was 12 to 7. The squad is hard at work strengthening the weak spots in order to down their other opponents. Come out to the games and give them your support.

Story Hour at Hiram Kelly Branch.

The usual weekly story hour will be held at the Hiram Helly Branch Chicago Public library on Friday afternoon at 4 p. m. for the older children and Saturday morning at 10 a. m. for the little children. This week the stories will be about Magellan and other early discoverers and explorers. All children cordially invited to attend.

Sore Throat

Will be the principal subject at the next meeting of the Chicago Public Health association, held at the auditorium of the Parker Practice school, Thursday, October 25, at 8:15 p. m.

An illustrated lecture by Mr. E. R. Pritchard, secretary of the health department on "Community Work for Community Good."

Mr. Pritchard is a fluent and forceful talker and you will be well repaid for coming.

Community Allied Arts and Crafts Exhibit.

The Woman's clubs of the Third district will hold an allied arts and crafts exhibit in the arts and gymnasium building of the Normal school for three afternoons, October 31, November 1 and 2. Third District day, Community day and Children's day will be observed.

All articles made in this community which would add value and interest to the exhibit are acceptable. Ribbon prizes to be awarded.

The object of holding such an exhibit is to promote interest in handmade articles of our own country. May we not have the hearty co-operation of our community?

If you wish to enter articles please notify Mrs. C. W. Leigh, 7320 Lafayette Ave., by Saturday, October 27.

Those in charge will assist the soldiers' wives in the sale of their handiwork if they so desire.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The popularity of the Marlowe hippodrome continues, and it deserves the liberal patronage the best people of the city are giving it. The program, a small resume of which is run in this paper weekly, will show that they are running the best first, and that they are just the ones suited to this intellectual and cultured community. The Marlowe has always been a family theatre, with programs for the ladies and children, and it is needless to say that nothing rough or objectionable will be allowed at any time. No house in Chicago is able to give six star vaudeville acts, besides the motion pictures at the very reasonable price of 10, 15 and 20 cents. The management of the house ("Doc" White) has special facilities of booking a class of talent that seldom shows outside of the big houses in the loop, and they have already booked a long line of the leaders that will interest, entertain and amuse the immense audiences the Marlowe is assured of. Put the Marlowe on your visiting list right now, and you will make no mistake when you are on pleasure and amusement bent.

Glance over their advertisement on this page and you will find a list of attractions as good as can be secured in any house in the city. In fact, they go further and ask the patrons to suggest the kind of attractions they may want, and Manager White will see that it will be booked if it is possible to secure it.

There is always something new, something classy and something worth while at the Marlowe, no matter what day you select to attend.

The new policy at the Marlowe theatre is a sure winner, and the live and hustling manager is to be congratulated upon it as well as the patrons who enjoy the many new benefits of it. There will be a complete change of program every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening, and an extra number will be added to the Friday bill.

EMPRESS THEATRE

"How do they do it at the price?" is the constant query of Empress theatre patrons. Every week and twice every week the entire bill is changed, and it is difficult to chose between them as to which is the best bill. Manager Harry Mitchell is up in his business, and as soon as a real headliner is discovered Harry goes gunning for it and it is very seldom indeed that he does not get it. See the bill this week, and you will know what we mean when we say what a good show it is.

Mr. Mitchell's long acquaintance with the big men on all circuits enables him to catch them going and coming, East or West, and many open dates are booked for the Empress that the dollar houses would be glad to book. Hereafter the old policy of matinees daily will rule, and the old price of ten cents, a thin dime, for admission is what none of the other managers can fathom and ask. "How does he manage it?" Well, that is what the proprietors pay for, his management and he does put it over every week.

The Empress has been renovated and prettily decorated, every corner and cranny swept and cleaned, garnished with new paint and gilding so that it shines as bright as a soldier's medal. Don't make a mistake when you want an hour or two of real amusement. Hit the trail for the Empress and keep abreast of the times in all the best stage stuff. None of the old-time, small-town acts get on the stage here. The act must be good and new and unquestionable in every way. It is never a cheap show, only cheap prices.

The great beauty of the Empress is the wonderful ventilating system by which it may be easily cooled and heated always with pure fresh air, the same system, in fact, as is used in the best hospitals. Remember the Empress when you are booking your best girl for an engagement. It is sure to please her as well as yourself.

TRIANGLE THEATRE

7219 Wentworth Ave.

When it comes to real music, and under unique conditions, the Triangle theatre has and holds the record. Its orchestra consists of three pieces, violin, piano and a trap drummer. The piano player and the trap man are totally blind and it is almost beyond belief when you hear them. The music is of unusual merit and more so when the circumstances are known. When you attend the Triangle theatre on your next movie night or matinee pay especial attention to the music, and if you are not as surprised as we were then we will miss our guess. Now for the program, of which the following is only a brief insight: Today (Friday), Miss Mae Marsh in "Polly of the Circus," the classic of the "Big Tops."

The story of "Polly" which has been given a tremendous production in its picturized form, is that of a motherless girl of the circus, and of the part she plays in the drama of life in a small American village. It is a romance of the sawdust ring and has been termed "the classic of the Big Tops." Polly is hurt while doing her "act" and is taken to the home of the local minister to be cared for. Her a pretty romance buds but before it blooms it is interrupted by the gossip of the villagers and Polly goes back to the circus. But the circus comes back another year and Polly and the minister pick up the threads of their romance in a dramatic climax. The picture is filled with realistic scenes of circus life, the most thrilling of which is a fire in the big tent and the stampede of the audience. It required a fully equipped circus to produce this realistic, and you are permitted to see a complete circus performance on the screen; the arrival of a circus in the town at daybreak, the great street parade the departure in the black of night. The greatest horse race scene ever put on the screen is another of the thrilling incidents of this remarkable picture.

Then on Saturday Edwin Ardin in "The Iron Heart" and Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle in "A Reckless Romeo.

On Sunday Hazel Dawn in "The Saleslady," and other good pictures.

Miscalculation.

"Why, didn't that widely advertised cafe open?"

"Well, you see, after putting in a dancing floor, an ice skating rink, dressing-rooms for the cabaret performers and a platform for the orchestra, there was no room for tables." —The Lamb.

Douglas Fairbanks in "The Lamb" at the Popular Linden, Sunday, October 21.

NATIONAL THEATRE

AFTER OFFICE HOURS.

Roy Foster's daring play, "After Office Hours," which comes to the National theatre week of October 21, is described as a daring play of today in which there is a villain, a hero and a heroine. The plot is suggested in the name of the play. The employer and his stenographer are the central figures and around them are grouped the other characters necessary to develop the thread of the story. There is the wife of the man, pictured as a clever and beautiful woman, a leader in her own set, tremendously interested in reform movements and sophisticated in the sense of the world.

There is the daughter of the man, inheriting the beauty and brains of her mother and engaged to a prominent young clergyman who presides over one of the most fashionable churches in the city.

The conclusion of the whole matter finds all of these impressive persons at the command of Millie Sinclair, the stenographer, whose will and brains are combined to save her from the disaster toward which her youth and foolishness have drawn her.

Scene From Act 1, "After Office Hours," at the National Next Week.

HALSTED THEATRE

Speaking of really good show houses, have you been to the Halsted lately, at the corner of 62d and Halsted Sts.? They are surely doing some great stunts in the line of putting on the best feature pictures seen in this part of the city. The big house is roomy, well ventilated, clean and comfortable and every day in the year puts on a good show. The pictures they book are the choicest to be procured, not the stale, stereotyped kind, but the latest and best, with a happy commingling of dramatic art and comedy that makes every program entertaining and enjoyable. Drop in any time at the Halsted and you may be assured of a rich entertainment with the most comfortable surroundings and pleasant conditions.

Sunday October 21st, the ever-popular and riot producer in the person of Charles Chaplin, will be at the Halsted theatre in his latest side-splitting comedy, "The Fall of the Rummy Nuff's." Other big pictures are also on the program, so you will enjoy a very pleasant afternoon or evening.

Monday October the 22nd Margaret Fischer in "The Girl Who Couldn't Grow up" a five-act comedy based on the story of a girl who stole a British title from her designing step-sisters.

Margaret Fischer, one of the most popular young stars of photodrama, likes the romping girl parts that give her a chance to run fast machines over country roads, to climb fire escapes in schoolgirls' escapades, to put white mice in some distinguished caller's silk hat, and otherwise to get that laugh which she insists is the essence of motion picture success.

Miss Fischer manages to do all the things above enumerated, and then some more in her new vehicle, which is one of the fastest actioned of recent motion picture productions.

People like her best when they can laugh at her. That's why she always tries to get a laughing story.

Then on Wednesday, October the 24th, Miss Juliette Day in "The Rainbow Girl" will be shown in a picture that will appeal to every member of the family from grand-dad down, and so clean in its theme and in production that grandma can't find fault.

Juliette Day is a well-known and popular young star of the speaking stage who has transferred her best effort to the motion picture screen, making her debut in "The Rainbow Girl."

The story is a simple one, but strongly dramatic and very effective in Miss Day's capable hands. It illustrates the superiority of smiles over frowns and displays the lovable character of Mary Beth, the happy little daughter of a worried old man whose solace and delight she is.

The cast includes some clever people aside from the star. George Fisher plays the leading role. Other well-known performers included are Charles Bennett, Lilian Hayward, Louis Morrison, Emma Klug and Marie Robertson.

Hard Name to Remember.

Olive was watching a neighbor making pie and was told it was lemon meringue. The next day the little tot came back and asked, "What was that pie's last name?"

Queer Mixup in Names.

People with queer names often get associated in a way which furnishes the editorial paragraphers with material. Such a mixing up of names with only one real change of name was that involved in Miss Bertha R. Fearing's marriage to John B. Bold before Justice Coward of South Norwalk, Conn., with Miss Anna Hugg as attendant.

Argentina Gum in Demand.

Among the Argentine industries which have benefited because of the suspended importation resulting from the European war, that of pitch gum is found to be of importance. The pitch gum of Argentina is sold under the name of Arabic gum and is used in the manufacture of candies. This product is now being used extensively instead of the imported article and efforts are being made to exploit its cultivation and production.

Each member carries her lunch and coffee is served by the guild. Women of the community are cordially invited to work with this group. The officers of the guild are: President, Mrs. J. H. Trotter, 6858 Perry Ave.; 1st vice president, Mrs. H. M. Sitting; 2nd vice president, Mrs. E. J. Hull; 3rd vice president, Mrs. L. Dodson; secretary, Mrs. G. S. Steele; treasurer, Mrs. Floyd Smith.

Mr. Arthur H. Atzenhoffer and Miss Marion F. Leonard were married on the evening of October 11 at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leonard, 7242 Union Ave., by Rev. Robert W. Van Kirk of the Normal Park Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. Atzenhoffer are both graduates of the Michigan Agricultural college. Mr. Atzenhoffer is a mechanical engineer and is in the employ of the Barrett Cravens company. They will be at home to their friends after November 1 at 1119 E. 54th St.

Mrs. J. A. Laird served luncheon to the members of Lady Aberdeen chapter, Daughters of the British Empire, at her home, 7153 Harvard Ave., on Tuesday. The luncheon was followed by a business meeting. Hereafter the business sessions of the chapter will be held at the field house in Hamilton Park. The officers for the current year are: Regent, Mrs. J. B. Bryson; 1st and 2nd vice regents, Mrs. F. Martin and Mrs. S. McKee; recording secretary, Mrs. J. A. Laird; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Guy Read; treasurer, Mrs. H. A. Harper.

A number of new members were enrolled at the rehearsal of the Hamilton Park Civic Music chorus on Monday night. Membership is still open, as there are vacancies in all parts. "The Hymn of Free Russia"—the new Russian national hymn—and "The Long Day" are included in the part songs which the chorus is studying. A Hallowe'en party is planned for the evening of Monday, October 29.

Park and Field House Activities.

GENERAL NOTES.

Story Hour at the library will begin in November. Watch for the announcement in next week's paper.

A dance will be given in the assembly hall on Saturday evening by the Rock Island employees.

Boys of Davis Square won from Hamilton boys in the soccer game of last Saturday, 1 goal to 0.

The Children's chorus meets on Monday and Thursday afternoons at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Grace M. Norbeck is the efficient instructor for this body of young singers.

Omega Delta Zeta will hold a dance in the assembly hall on Tuesday evening.

The Hamilton Park Woman's club meets in the assembly hall on Tuesday afternoons. Study period at 1 o'clock; general program, 2:30.

Club calendar for the coming week: Monday, Fidelis Juniors, Tau Sigma Phi; Tuesday, Spanish club; Wednesday, Englewood Aeros; Thursday, rehearsal of the Englewood Swedish Quartette.

WOMEN'S GYMNASIUM.

Afternoon classes opened this week with a large registration.

The attention of women is directed to the following classes: Thursday afternoons—gymnasium class for women at 3 o'clock; class for children, 6 years and under, following the women's class. Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, hockey in the outdoor gymnasium with Miss Florence Owen, instructor.

The following members of the "gym" classes took part in the folk dancing given at the "Country Fair" on Tuesday evening: Highland Fling, Rachael McNabb and Ida Kalhman; "Looby Loo," "Oats, Peas, Beans," "Shoemaker Dance"—Barbara Scott, Clarence Pireth, Gatella Coates, Eleanor McCabe, Joyce Mundt, Edith Carey, Kenneth Palmer, Swen Johannesson, Adam Janischek, Wilbur and Clifford Roland. "Ace of Diamonds" and "Carrousel"—Harriet Joures, Ned Richardson, Hazel Kaliske, West Briggs, Florence Boetecher, Charles Rich, Florence Simon, Dorothy Forsheir, Edith Simon, Grace Tupes, Margaret Pfeifer, Margaret Gutsch, Marie Forshier, Mildred Lyness.

MEN'S GYMNASIUM.

The men's gym will be formally opened on Tuesday night, October 23, at 8 o'clock. A program of gymnastics, wrestling, tumbling, and some fine music—vocal and instrumental—will be given. The men and boys of the community are cordially invited to be present. Here is a fine opportunity for Dad to chum with his boy. It will be a thoroughly enjoyable hour or so. COME.

LIBRARY.

New Seven-Day Books—"Bromley Neighborhood," Brown; "The Knave of Diamonds," Dell; "The Royal Outlaw," Hudson; "The Gun-Brand," Hendryx; "The Red Planet," Locke; "The Treasure Train," Reeve; "Amarilly in Love," Maniates; "Abby Ann," Martin; "Anne's House of Dreams," Montgomery; "Martie, the Unconquered," Morris; "Pippin, a Wandering Flame," Richards; "The Insidious Dr. Fu-Manchu," Ward.

Non-Fiction—"How to Live," Fisher; "The Well-Considered Garden," King; "Making Life a Masterpiece," Marden; "Wheat and Its Products," Millar; "Wiring Houses for the Electric Light," Schneider.

Hamilton Park Women's Club.

The club will meet in the field house at Hamilton Park, on Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 23. One o'clock, department study class. Subject, "Food Value of Protein in Relation to Health." Instructor, Mrs. Clarence Rainwater. 2:30, general program; speaker, Mr. Clarence Rainwater. Subject, "What Play Means to Democracy of the World."

A Country Fair.

Those who accepted the invitation of the Hamilton Park Woman's club to attend the "Country Fair," which was given under the auspices of the art and literature and educational departments at the field house last Tuesday, spent a pleasant afternoon and evening.

The club rooms were used for the lectures and loan exhibits of oriental rugs, linens and pictures. Booths in which many interesting and beautiful articles were displayed were placed in the assembly hall, which had been tastefully decorated with autumn leaves. Work done by the pupils of Oglesby school occupied one of the booths; others were devoted to cakes and canned vegetables and fruit, needle work, war relics, antiques and curios.

In the latter class should be noted the Chinese exhibit, which included a snuff bottle of the Ming dynasty, 400 years old; Chinese war dog, 350 years; ink bottle of red lacquer; Chinese pillow and Chinese fruit vender—hand-carved panel from Sweden; swift of ivory and pearl for winding yarn, carved by an old sea captain; hand-woven counterpane, 188 years old; a wash bowl and pitcher brought to Michigan by the first white settlers; a set of hand-wrought jewelry.

An attractive feature of the afternoon was the baby show. Twenty-one children were entered in the contest and prizes were awarded as follows: 1 to 2 years—1st, Howard Roy Crothers; 2nd, Hazel Roberta Chamberlin; 2 to 3 years—1st, Margaret Albertson, John Mark Turner and Richard O'Loughlin; 2nd, Edward Wonder. 3 to 4 years—1st, Betty May Long. 4 to 5 years—1st, Violet May Cheezum (Violet was pronounced the only absolutely perfect child among the contestants); 2nd, Marion Elizabeth Rice, Mariom Lillorth and Russell Cross. The contest was conducted along strictly scientific lines, based on the measurements of the anthropometric table compiled by the American Medical association after the examination of 10,000 babies. Judges: Drs. Sarah Duncan and Belle Gurney, Mrs. J. H. Hunnell, Jr.

A program of music—victrola and duo-art pianola recital, and vocal numbers by the Misses Lelia Jesty and Olive June Lacy and Mr. Thomas Remington, folk dancing by members of the women's gymnasium classes, and readings by Mrs. Isabell Stambach was given during the evening.

The community is greatly indebted to the club for the privilege of seeing the exhibits and enjoying the many attractive features of the entertainment.

In the ads of the Stuckey Prescription drug store will be found an interesting series of advices of "The Everwells." Read them and heed the pointers.

Mr. Charles W. Stewart died at his late home, 6737 Winchester Ave., Friday, and the funeral was held from the residence Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Interment was in Oakwood.

Hallowe'en events are being framed, and about every assembly hall in town is billed for a party.

Lars E. Larson, who died last week, was buried from his late residence, 6720 Morgan St., Sunday afternoon, and interment was made in Oakhill. He leaves a good wife and four children to mourn his going.

On account of an unusual rush of local news matter this week our serial story will be omitted.

Peter Kelly died Thursday at the home of Philip Horgan, 7249 May St., and the funeral was held Sunday. Interment in Mount Olivet. Mr. Kelly was a native of Listowel, Dewa, Ireland.

Please remember to sign the local news you send us, and get it to us by Wednesday if possible.

If there has been a dollar of the wheel tax spent in this part of the city, we do not know where. We are entitled to at least $10,000 worth of work on the streets without special assessments.

Halsted St. merchants complain that there is an organized band of beggars infesting this district, each one having certain locations for a week, when a new one inherits the spot. If these people are deserving the county should care for them; if not, they should be locked up.

Notwithstanding reports to the contrary, the "L" road has no intention of extending the line beyond Loomis St. That is no reason, however, why a station should not be placed at Morgan St., at least. The distance from Halsted to Racine is one-half mile, much too great a distance to walk. See the aldermen about it.

The St. Sabina branch of the Holy Name society will give a card party Friday evening, the 26th, in the new parish hall, 78th and Throop Sts. Many beautiful prizes have been donated for the occasion and an evening of pleasure is assured all who attend. The big event of the night will be the pie contest between two of Auburn's best-known citizens—Mr. John Hickey and Mr. Jim Sullivan. N. B.—Lemon-ice cream will be the confection used.

The Modern Woodmen band will give a free public concert in the Ogden Park Assembly hall on Sunday afternoon, October 21, at three o'clock. The thousands of Englewood people who have heard this remarkable musical organization will not willingly miss this opportunity to hear it again. Those who have not heard the band at any of its recent concerts are assured of a rare musical treat on this occasion. Admission will be free to the public, and all are welcome, but owing to the small capacity of the hall, those who want seats will do well to come early.

Henry S. Wilde's Biggest Market on South Side.

Our old friend and neighbor, Henry S. Wilde, formerly at 63d and Normal Blvd., secured the management of the New City Packing company, located at 4737-39 South Ashland Ave., and has the largest, best-equipped and in every way most complete market in this part of the city. Their own ice plant cools their immense plant; live chickens and poultry of all kinds are kept in another apartment specially built for them, still another is devoted to fresh fish, and a dozen salesmen are busy attending to their retail trade. It is clean, sanitary, and the stock so large that choice cuts of all kinds are on view and sale at prices that go far to knock out old "H. C. L.," so it will pay purchasers of good meats to visit Mr. Wilde's new establishment. The upper floors are devoted to the wholesale department, where they devote themselves to catering to the largest hotels, restaurants, hospitals and public institutions, and the stocks carried are a revelation to those not accustomed to wholesaling in this line. Mr. Wilde invites a visit from his old Englewood friends, and will be pleased to show them his new place and a strictly up-to-date market.

John J. Schrepferman, age forty-nine, who died at his late home, 6556 Aberdeen St., was buried Saturday morning. Interment at St. Mary's cemetery.

"Duck," shouted Albert Meyer, bartender in Thomas Gallaghers saloon at 1452 72d St., as he saw two men carrying revolvers enter the saloon last night.

Two customers ducked behind tables. They were Joseph Spratt, 6525 Emerald Ave., and Leon Evans, 6553 Marshfield Ave.

Myers himself had ducked, but a moment later he rose up with a revolver and shot one of the men in the knee as he was helping himself out of the cash register.

Then the two customers leaped out and seized the other man. The police took William Mumford, 6823 Loomis St., to the bridewell hospital and Edmund Kelleher, 6714 Elizabeth St., to a cell. Mumford said he was only celebrating his twenty-fourth birthday.

To Gas Consumers Still Using Only Flat Flame Lights—

The candle power of all gas in Chicago was reduced on October 1st, as provided by City Ordinance. This has cut down the volume of light from flat flame burners. Therefore, to all gas consumers who are wholly dependent upon flat flame burners for illumination, this company continues to offer—

FREE—
Two Junior Mantle Lights

—burner, mantle and chimney complete, and installed without charge.

One JUNIOR light will deliver nearly three times as much light as you ever got from a flat flame burner and use less than half as much gas.

Write us immediately—or fill out this coupon and turn it in where you regularly pay your gas bill—and it will receive prompt attention.

The Peoples Gas Light & Coke Company

E. A. R. THEATRE

Friday, October 19—7 to 11 p. m.—Edward Arnold in "A Slacker's Heart," seven reels. A most timely appeal has this story of a man's slowness to act when his country calls, until aroused to action by the cowardly attack of a submarine which destroys the lives of two of those near and dear to him. No harrowing battle scenes are here, but only a strong, deep lesson which should bring home to many the nearness of the situation as it stands today between our country and its enemies. Also Educational Weekly.

Saturday, October 20—7 to 11 p. m.—George Beban, one of the greatest character actors on the screen and whose every picture stands as an artistic triumph in "The Cook of Canyon Camp," five reels. A story of the chef of a lumber camp whose greatest desire was to own a "flapjack palace." This picture contains more than the usual blend of pathos and humor that has made Beban famous. Little Mary McAllister in "The Uneven Road," an appealing story of the "Do Children Count?" series. Also "A Midnight Bell," possibly the best known of Charles Hoyt's farces, with a laugh for every foot of the two reels.

Sunday, October 21—2 to 11 p. m.—Myrtle Gonzalez in "The Show-Down," five reels. We have had many tales of shipwrecks and desert islands, and love affairs therefrom, but this one of a romance on an island in mid-Pacific, the tiny isle of Santa Cruz, brought about by a submarine attack on a steamship on which were gathered the various characters of the story, is just a little bit different from the ordinary run. Nature studies that alone are worth the price of admission are features of this enthralling play. "A Royal Rogue," two-reel Keystone comedy and Burton Holmes' Travelogue. Added attraction. Matinee only—Pearl White in "The Fatal Ring," Episode No. 4.

Monday, October 22—First showing of Charlie Chaplin in his side-splitting comedy, "The Adventurer." A laugh tonic bubbling over with Chaplin humor. Marguerite Snow in "The Faded Flower," five reels. An interesting story of a stenographer who sacrifices her love in order to secure money for an operation for her mother, who has been accidentally blinded.

Tuesday, October 23—7 to 11 p. m.—Jack Devereaux in "The Grafters," five reels. A thrilling story of the life of a big city and what happened to a young man who inherited an unexpected fortune. The methods of a gang of grafters are clearly exposed. Amuscomedy. "The Rushin' Dancers," Nestor comedy.

Wednesday, October 24—"The Law of the Land," five reels. The love of a mother for her child, her attempts to save that child from the brutality of a vicious and unnatural father, the murder of the later, and the hunt for the murderer, with the final dramatic episode, is splendidly acted by a superb cast assisting Mme. Petrova. Wyndham Standing, Mahlon Hamilton and William Riley Hatch are all veterans of the stage and screen, and as such they contribute excellent characterizations to the various important roles in the play. Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Drew in "His Ear for Music." "Her Awful Predicament," Christie comedy. Also Pathe News.

Thursday, October 25—"Wee Lady Betty," five reels. If you can imagine a more fascinating bit of Irish femininity than Bessie Love, or a more fascinating play of the "Ould Country," we can't. We'll wager, however, that you won't find so entrancing a story soon again, and if you aren't already in love with Bessie Love you'll surely fall head over heels when you see her as "Wee Lady Betty" of the picture. "Their Domestic Deception," comedy. "The Untamed," two-reel drama.

Friday and Saturday, October 26 and 27—Mary Pickford in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm." "America's Sweetheart" and one of the most appealing characters in modern American fiction—what a combination! As the heroine of Kate Douglas Wiggins' charming story, which has been read by everyone all over the country, Mary Pickford adds another leaf to her laurel wreath of artistic impersonations. Most of you know the story well, and for those of you who do not we can only say, "go to see the picture." We shan't attempt to spoil it by giving you even an inkling of the plot, but we promise you five reels of the most amusing, entertaining, delightfully human action that you have seen in many a long time. To say that Mary Pickford is at her best as "Rebecca" is quite sufficient, even if the balance of the cast and the story of the picture were not just about the finest you have ever seen.

At the E. A. R. Theatre Friday and Saturday, October 26 and 27.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Last season George F. Belfrage, the producer of high-class burlesque, put out a show with the unmounted purpose of culling all the laurels on the Columbia circuit. He called that production his "Hip, Hip, Horray Girls," and it was such an exception as a burlesque show that it not only culled the desired laurels but, at the wind-up of the season, it was selected as the show to play the long summer run at the Columbia theatre in New York city. Having accomplished this, Mr. Belfrage looked around for new worlds to conquer and his glance naturally fell on the American circuit. He decided to launch a show on the American which would contain all the originality, spontaneity, and distinction which characterized his "Hip, Hip, Horray Girls." The result was a superior production to which he affixed a most unusual name. It is the "Biff! Bing! Bang!" show which on October 21 comes to the Englewood theatre for an engagement of one week. To begin with Mr. Belfrage wanted to secure something out of the ordinary in the way of a book and he retained the services of Junie McCree, who is the leading author of burlesque material. Mr. McCree evolved for him two exceptional vehicles entitled "The Corner Drug Store" and "Triple Beds." The laugh interest is fast and furious in both of these acts and the comedians find themselves furnished the funniest lines and most amusing situations they have ever been called upon to handle. Mr. Belfrage's next thought was to secure a competent cast and he enlisted the services of Joe Rose, who is one of the most pleasing comedians in this form of entertainment. The others engaged to give Mr. Rose competent support are Virginia Wilson, prima donna; Thelma Seaville, soubrette; Sedal Bennett, ingenue; Al. K. Bush, black-face comedian; Bobbie Nugent, straight and rube comedy; George Brennan and Jack Shaw. The next step in completing this organization was to procure a worthy chorus and the producer took as much pains selecting each girl as he might have taken to select his featured comedian or prima donna. But the results show that it paid. He has the classiest looking lot of girls gathered into a burlesque chorus in many a day and each girl is possessed of a singing and dancing ability as well as beauty. A wardrobe of unprecedented magnificence has been given the girls and they appear in many bewitching dances and ensembles and contribute musical numbers of more than accustomed quality. There are several special features, one of them, a big novelty surprise which occurs during the progress of the first act and which is distinctly new. A number of high-class specialties further helps to complete the performance and send the audience home happy.

Thelma Seaville With "The Biff, Bing, Bang Show"—All Next Week.

Today, Friday, October 19th, the first time on the South side, Julian Eltinge, the greatest feminine impersonator in the world, in "The Countess Charming." As "man to man" or "woman to woman," Mr. Eltinge will appeal to you immensely in this brilliant story of fun, thrills and high society. As the Russian countess he surpasses anything he has ever done in his own unique field. Don't miss this.

Special—one day only—Saturday, October 20, matinee and night. The stupendous and timely production, "Rasputin, the Black Monk," or "The Downfall of the Romanoffs." A gigantic picturization of the greatest National drama in the history of the world, in eight big acts, with one of the most exceptional casts ever assembled: Montague Love, Arthur Ashley, Henry Hull, Julia Dean, Irving Cummings. See the remarkable visualization of living beings, the rise of Rasputin from a humble peasant's cottage to the dominant power in all Russia, with women of the court as his playthings, the czarina groveling at his feet—this marvelous career enthrallingly told in this vast production. See his rise to power, his hypnotic influence over women, the downfall of the Romanoffs, and Rasputin's tragic end. Don't miss it.

Sunday, October 21st. Continuous 2 to 11 p. m. Metro Pictures presents the star supreme, Ethel Barrymore, in "Life's Whirlpool," a wonderplay of sunshine and rain. A tremendous spectacular drama in six astonishing acts full of powerful problems. This offering gives Miss Barrymore chances for dramatic expression such as she has never had before in pictures. Also — Extra Extra! — Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, William S. Hart, Wilton Lackaye, Pauline Frederick, Billie Burke, Julian Eltinge and 40 other big stars from stage and screen, with President Wilson in a new patriotic Liberty loan picture. See Mary Pickford running a bank and holding up Douglas Fairbanks, William S. Hart, Julian Eltinge. An exciting play from start to finish.

Double feature, Monday, October 22d, matinee and night. First run, the King of Comedians, Charles Chaplin, in his latest great comedy, "The Adventure." A riotous mirth in two parts, Chaplin's best comedy yet. Also the David Warfield of the screen, Lew Fields, supported by Madge Evans in the big stage success, "The Corner Grocer," in six parts. As a play it had a long run in New York, and as a motion picture it will be enjoyed by all. It is a wonderfully clever, wholesome comedy-drama that will make you laugh one minute, and bring tears to your eyes the next. A great show. Bring the children.

Special benefit performances, Tuesday, October 23, matinee and night. Given under the auspices of and for the benefit of the Altar Chapter of St. Bartholomew's church. Special selected program. Jesse L. Lasky presents the most popular boy and girl combination on the screen today, Jack Pickford and Louise Huff, in another of the plays of youth, which old and young alike love to see, "The Ghost-House." A clever, wholesome play, and one of the most unusual stories of their repertoire, written especially by the noted novelist Beulah Muin Dix, and produced by the expert direction of Cecil De Mille. Also Burton Holmes Travelogue and new scream two-part Keystone comedy. Matinee, all seats 10 cents. Evening all seats 15 cents.

At the "Harvard Beautiful," Tuesday, October 22nd.

Wednesday, October 24th, matinee and evening. First time on the South side. Jesse L. Lasky presents winsome Vivian Martin, in "The Sunset Trail." A story as beautiful in spirit and in sincerity of production as is its setting of the California redwoods. "To be suddenly transplanted from a little ranch 'way up in the mountains to the whirl of society in the big cities" was the experience of Bess Aiken. Why was this? Who made it possible? What was the result? See this Paramount Feature. You will like it. Also Victor Moore Comedy and latest weekly. First Run.

Thursday, October 25th, Matinee and night, Greater Vitagraph presents Alice Joyce and Marc MacDermott in "An Alabaster Box." Adopted from the famous novel by Mary E. Wilkins Freeman and Florence Morse Kingsley. The splendid story of a daughter's loyalty to her father, and her fight to bring back the honor of the family that had gone out with her father's misdeeds. A truly wonderful play and the management of the Harvard theatre recommends it to its patrons highly. Also Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew, in a new comedy.

Extra—Extra—First time in the South side, Friday and Saturday, October 26 and 27. Continuous 1 to 11 p. m. No stop for supper. The irrepressible, ever popular Douglas Fairbanks, as an Eastern tenderfoot in his new, humorous, exciting, death-defying play, "The Man From Painted Post." A thrilling play of the great West. A typically Fairbands play, full of "pep." The good-natured rough stuff, the thrills and the smiles. The scenes of this great play are laid in beautiful Wyoming. Bucking bronchos, crack riding, trick roping, and bull dodging stunts are among the interesting features offered by "Doug." Fairbanks in this comedy-drama of the true West. Also other pictures. Come early—attend the matinee. Don't miss, it's Fairbank's best play.

The Karat.

The weight used by goldsmiths in gauging the quality of gold apart from the alloy—namely, karat—is derived from that of the seed of an Abyssinian karat-flower, which, being exceedingly uniform in size, were employed in weighing gold and precious stones.

Philadelphia Lawyer Illustrated "Leading Questions" in Court With Diplomatic Kiss Story.

The late John G. Johnson, a Philadelphia lawyer, was once explaining to a jury the nature and the unfairness of "leading" or guiding questions. He illustrated his explanation with an anecdote.

"A young chap and a pretty girl," he said, "sat on a secluded bench at Lemon Hill. The girl turned to him and said earnestly:

"'You asked me for a kiss. There is a language in kisses. A kiss on the hand denotes chivalrous respect. On the forehead it denotes a firm and faithful friendship. On the lips—' her color rose and she drew a long breath—"a kiss on the lips denotes all things. Kiss me, then, once. Express in one kiss your feeling toward me.'

"The bashful youth pondered.

"'I don't want to lose her,' he said to himself. 'Where is it best to kiss her? Hand, forehead, or lips?'

"A mellow whistle interrupted him. He looked at the girl. Her red mouth was puckered up in the form of a rosebud; she had pulled down her hat so as to hide her forehead completely, and both hands were thrust up to the wrists in her pockets."

In Better Standing.

"You citizens of Washington, D. C., can't vote!" remarked the visitor.

"No. And at that we're entitled to more credit than numerous residents of other cities who could vote if they chose, but who prefer not to interfere with political bosses."—Washington Star.

Not a Bit of Use.

There was some speculation as to whether the instrument would benefit the old gentleman or not. One was holding the ear trumpet, while another was explaining its use and showing old Mr. Shortcash how to hold it to his ear.

"Say something to him through it, Binks," said one to the other.

Now Binks had long waited for an opportunity to reach Mr. Shortcash's ear, so, speaking very distinctly into the trumpet he said:

"You've not paid me that five dollars you owe me yet, Mr. Shortcash."

But the old gentleman put the instrument down with disappointment on his face, and they could see it was a failure even before he had time to say:

"That thing's not a bit of use to me."

And he sighed, but his sigh was not so deep as that which came from Binks.

Why Look?

Mrs. Jenkins, a regular visitor in the doctor's consulting room, started on the long story of her troubles. The doctor endured it patiently and gave her another bottle. At last she started out, and the doctor was congratulating himself, when she stopped and exclaimed:

"Why, doctor, you didn't look to see if my tongue was coated?"

"I know it isn't," wearily replied the medical man. "You don't find grass on a race track."

Sure Enough.

The ball had gone over the fence, as balls will in suburban gardens, and a small but unabashed batsman appeared at the front door to ask for it.

Then appeared an irate father.

"How dare you show yourself at my house? How dare you ask for your ball? Do you know you nearly killed one of my children with it?"

"But you've got ten children," said the logical lad, "and I've only got one baseball."

A Medicine for Women

For Forty Years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Relieved the Sufferings of Women.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

Mrs. Kieso Cured After Seven Month's Illness.

Aurora, Ill.—"For seven long months I suffered from a female trouble, with severe pains in my back and sides until I became so weak I could hardly walk from chair to chair, and got so nervous I would jump at the slightest noise. I was entirely unfit to do my house work, I was giving up hope of ever being well, when my sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and today I am a healthy woman able to do my own housework. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and find out for herself how good it is."—Mrs. Karl A. Kieso, 596 North Ave., Aurora, Ill.

Could Hardly Get Off Her Bed.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—"I want you to know the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was in such bad health from female troubles that I could hardly get off my bed. I had been doctoring for a long time and my mother said, 'I want you to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So I did, and it has certainly made me a well woman. I am able to do my house work and am so happy as I never expected to go around the way I do again, and I want others to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. Josie Copner, 1668 Harrison Ave., Fairmount, Cincinnati, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

WAS ALL RUN DOWN

Faulty Kidneys Caused Acute Suffering. Completely Recovered Since Using Doan's.

Mrs. Harry A. Lyon, 5 St. William St., S. Boston, Mass., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have surely done me wonderful good. About two months prior to the birth of my baby, I had two convulsions and was taken to a hospital. Doctors said the convulsions were due to my kidneys not working properly.

MRS. LYON.

"I had swelling of the feet and ankles so that I had to wear large-sized slippers. My back ached intensely, I was nervous and unable to sleep. I also suffered from awful headaches and felt weak, tired, languid, and run down.

"After I came home a friend suggested that I try Doan's Kidney Pills, and I got some. I soon noticed improvement; my back became stronger and I felt better in every way. I kept on taking Doan's and was cured. They are surely reliable."

Mrs. Lyon gave the above statement in May, 1915, and on March 12, 1917, she said:

"My cure has lasted. I take Doan's occasionally, however, as a strengthener for my kidneys."

Even With the Barber.

"Don't you care for any postcards today?" asked the postal clerk as he handed the man the stamp he had requested.

"No, not today," said the man.

"Or some stamped envelopes? We have some new ones."

"No, thank you."

"Would you like a money order?"

"No."

"Or perhaps you would like to open a postal savings account?"

But the man had fled.

"Who was that fellow, and why did you ask him all those questions?" asked a fellow clerk.

"That," said the other clerk, "is my barber. For years when he has shaved me he has bothered me with recommendations of massages, shampoos, haircuts and hair tonics. I am even with him now."

BOY SWAPS HIS DAD'S SHIRT

Accepts Proposition of Wild West Show Employee and Gets Inside the "Big Top."

Monte Jessep is the robust son of Orin Jessep, president of the Orin Jessep Land company of Tipton, and he is a true American lad, says the Indianapolis News. He knows when a circus comes to town, and like all other boys, he will find a way to see the show. That was why he did not miss a Wild West exhibition that played Tipton recently. The lad had been pondering over how he was to get inside the "big top," and he was not greatly encouraged until a big, black man—one of the many sons of Ham with the show—approached him.

"Say, sonny, how big's your dad?" asked the stranger.

"He's a whopper," promptly replied the youngster, thinking perhaps the colored man might have some notion of ordering him roughly from the ground.

"If you all 'll give me one of your dad's shirts I'll take you in all the shows."

The lad scurried away and soon delivered one of Mr. Jessep's best shirts to the colored man, who was as good as his word and took the lad through every tented attraction on the grounds. Later on the young American had it forcibly impressed on him that he could have gone to the show several times for what the shirt cost.

The Business Craze.

"Even the fowls on the farm seem struck with this idea of combination."

"How do you mean?"

"I notice that when the ducks hatch their eggs, they start at once to pool the issues."

From One Who Has Tried.

"What is the distinction between insurance and assurance?"

"Takes one to sell the other."

If a man is crazy and doesn't know it, it is because he has no wife to tell him.

War Empties Prisons.

Since the outbreak of the war seventeen of Great Britain's prisons have been closed and the male prison staff reduced from 3,001 to less than 2,000.

The Accordion.

The accordion, the proverbial instrument of rural musicians, was invented by a Viennese, Damian, in 1829.

WRIGLEY'S

The "Cat Squadron."

Great Britain was the first naval power to build the battle-cruiser. Close on her heels came Germany, Russia and Japan; but all others, including the United States, have no battle cruisers in their line of battle. It was in 1907 when the Indomitable, the first one, was begun. One year later she crossed the Atlantic at a speed of a little more than 25 miles an hour. The Inflexible and Invincible followed, and, when the European war came, Great Britain had a squadron that proved of immense worth to her. In the Jutland battle, however, three of the British battle cruisers were sunk, shells penetrating their armor and exploding their magazines or boilers. The armor of a superdreadnaught would most probably have proved too strong for the shells that destroyed these battle cruisers. The famous "Cat Squadron," so called because it included the Lion and Tiger, is today the last word in the battle cruiser; but in a few years the American battle cruisers that are now being built will far outstrip the "cats" in every feature.—Frank E. Evans, in St. Nicholas Magazine.

Spanked the Kitty.

The little black kitten hid under the veranda and refused to come out and be friends again with Polly. Mamma found the little girl in tears, and asked the cause of the trouble.

"Kitty scratched me, so I was 'bliged to spank her an' now she won't play with me," sobbed Polly.

"If you spank kitty, she won't love you," explained mamma.

"I didn't know 'bout that," replied the little one miserably, "'cause you spank me an' I love you just the same."

Didn't Need Them.

While a traveler was waiting for an opportunity to show his samples to a merchant a customer came in and bought a couple of nightshirts. Afterward a long, lank laborer, with his trousers tied below the knees, said to the merchant:

"What was them things that chap bought?"

"Nightshirts. Can I sell you one or two?"

"No. I should think not. I don't sit about much o' nights."

The Era of Censorship.

"A little knowledge is a dangerous thing," exclaimed the man who quotes.

"Possibly," replied Senator Sorghum. "A great deal just now depends on how you get your information and what you intend to do with it."

Eloquence Unheeded.

"I have laid my oratorical talents at the feet of my country."

And then what happened?"

"Somebody said, 'Forward, march!' and my country simply stepped over 'em and went right along."

Obliging.

Employer—I would rather have a single man for the position.

Applicant—Well, advance me enough money and I'll get a divorce.

Wait on Yourself.

"Everything comes to him who waits."

"Maybe so, but the cafeteria idea is gaining ground."

Exercise.

"Don't you think every man should devote some time to physical culture?"

"Not in my particular field of activity," replied Senator Sorghum. "If all legislators went in for physical culture as well as intellectual development some of these debates might end in a personal encounter that really hurt somebody."

The Most Important.

Don't Neglect Kidneys

Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Prescription, Overcomes Kidney Trouble

It is now conceded by physicians that the kidneys should have more attention as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood.

The kidneys should receive some assistance when needed. We take less exercise, drink less water and often eat more rich, heavy food, thereby forcing the kidneys to do more work than nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as lame back, annoying bladder troubles, smarting or burning, brick-dust or sediment, sallow complexion, rheumatism, maybe weak or irregular heart action, warns you that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid more serious trouble.

An ideal herbal compound that has had most remarkable success as a kidney and bladder remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. There is nothing else like it. It is Dr. Kilmer's prescription used in private practice and it is sure to benefit you. Get a bottle from your druggist.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper. Adv.

Germany Disgusted.

Elihu Root, on his return from Russia, said at a dinner in New York:

"Germany, while I was abroad, tried very hard for a separate peace. She soon gave up, however, disgustedly declaring that the allies were more inclined for separate pieces."

SULLIVAN'S SENSE and NONSENSE

He's unfit for army duty
And poor health has been his luck;
Yet he'd wade all day in water
Hunting for the festive duck!

He could never stand the rigors—
At the training camp he'd fail—
Yet he'd tramp from dawn to darkness
After pheasants, grouse or quail!

He's a crooked little finger,
Which bars him from the fray,
Yet he drives a speedy roadster
Ninety miles an hour, they say!

His constitution's shattered—
No wonder he's rejected—
He never has been sick a day
Nor ever felt dejected.

But the army will not have him,
And the navy, trim and fit,
Has no place for such a husky
Who would dodge his little bit!

There are not as many brass buttons on our soldiers now as in former wars, but they sure do look natty and soldierly.

It takes a boy's mother some time to teach him to say his prayers, but he learns to "cuss" with little effort.

Yes, I'm superstitious, but not so much as to prefer $12 for the unlucky number of 13.

"There must be some mistake in my examination marking. I don't think I deserve an absolute zero," complained the student. "Neither do I," agreed the instructor, "but it's the lowest mark I'm allowed to give."

"How did you get Mrs. Bounce out of your bridge club? Did you ask her to resign?" "No, we didn't like to do that, but we all resigned except Mrs. Bounce, and then we all got together and formed a new club."

"That sister-in-law of yours is a crab." "Oh, I wouldn't say that. She is suffering from matrimonial dyspepsia." "That's a new one on me. What is matrimonial dyspepsia?" "Her husband doesn't agree with her."

"Isn't Blower inclined to be just a little boastful?" "Boastful? Well, I guess yes. After a beggar has touched Blower for a nickel he will tell you that he has been giving a little dinner to an acquaintance of his."

"Mr. Biggins," said the attending physician gravely, "I am afraid your wife's mind is gone." "Well, I'm not surprised," replied Mr. B. "She's been giving me a piece of it every day for twenty-three years, and she didn't have a whole lot to start on."

They were sitting in the parlor and sounds of a piano came from the music room. "Your daughter is improving nicely with her piano playing; that is a brilliant selection," said the visitor. "That's not my daughter playing," said the indignant mother. "That's the piano tuner working at his job."

A girl, a newcomer in a country school, gave her name to the teacher as "Fertilizer Johnson." Later the teacher asked the mother if that was right. "Yes, ma'am, that's her name," said the fond parent. "You see, she was named after me and her father. Her father's name is Ferdinand and my name is Liza. So we called her Fertilizer."

When the son came home from college he boasted to his fond parent: "Dad, I could lift more than any man in my class at college," and the very tired dad came back with: "That's fine, Harold; suppose you take off your coat now and see if you can lift the mortgage we put on the old place to send you to college." But did he?

I met a well-known Englewood physician this morning and asked: "What did you operate on Mr. Brown for?" "Two hundred dollars," was the answer. "Yes, I know that; but what did he have?" I asked. "Two hundred dollars," said the wise old pill peddler, and he grinned as he flung his rusty little black bag in his sporty runabout.

"Now, boss, I's ready to go anywhere dey wants to send me," said a dusky citizen in a southern city on registration day, after performing his patriotic duty. "Boss jes' anywhere! But I ask jes' one thing and dat is don't put me in no cavalry." "Why do you draw the line on the cavalry?" asked the registrar. "It's jes' like dis: When I's told to retreat, I don't want to be bothered with no hoss."

The sophomore class in zoology was reciting and the professor asked a pupil to describe a lobster. The bright pupil with the high water pants and disreputable crushed hat and glaring necktie said: "The lobster is a red fish that goes backward," and the professor said: "With the exception of just three things your definition is correct. A lobster is not red, it is not a fish and it doesn't go backward."

While the editor of the "Useful Hints" department is away on his vacation, it is up to me to answer some of the queries. "To avoid cracking cut glass with hot water, first cool your water." "An excellent absorbent of artificial stains on your fingers and thumbs is a bar of home-made soap, or, better, soft soap." "To preserve silverware for many years, keep it in the safety deposit vault." "Never wear a train while attending to kitchen duties. Jewelry and picture hats are also in bad form in the culinary precincts. Blondes should remember that scrambled eggs are extremely trying on their complexion." "In testing a loaf of bread, use a broom straw; some prefer a hatpin, but the best bread makers do not approve of them, unless they are gilded." "When serving eggs raw, be sure that they are fresh."

The young teacher had been studying the wind all the week until her pupils had grown tired of the subject. To stimulate interest, the teacher one morning said in her most enthusiastic manner: "Children, as I came to school today on an Elevated car something came softly in and kissed me on the cheek. What do you think it was?" And the children joyfully chorused: "The conductor."

Annie, a Slav washerwoman, who works one day a week in a certain South side home, seems to have an ear for music, even if she does possess no technical knowledge on the subject. In the home, a few days since, a piano tuner spent about six hours trying to put the instrument into condition again. The laundry of the home is directly under the living room in which the tuner was performing his monotonous task. When Annie came up after her day's work was done she said to her employer: "You know man in parlor?" "Yes, Annie." "Well I want to tell you one thing. I no like to hear him. He rotten piano player."

Some men are very appreciative. Apropos, I met a farmer yesterday who is seeing the sights in the city, and he told me: "What a farmer needs in this world to be successful is a good wife. Now, my wife could get up in the morning at four o'clock, milk fifteen cows, feed six horses, harness them for work, get the breakfast for twenty hands, an' be all ready for a day's work afore six o'clock. That's what I call a good wife." "Doesn't she do it now?" I innocently asked. "Oh, no," he replied, wiping away a tear. "She's dead; I don't know what killed her."

The Warring Nations Before the War.

Countries to Which Our Boys Are Going.

The People's Liberal church offers a very attractive course of Sunday evening illustrated lectures beginning next Sunday evening. We have been interested greatly in European countries for three years on account of the vast international war. Now our interest in these countries is increased because many thousands of our American soldier boys are over there and many thousands more will soon go. We are not yet wholly awake to the fact that probably seventy or a hundred thousand American soldiers are already on foreign soil. If the war continues it will not be long before these soldiers will be in the trenches fighting for the great common cause. What are the countries to which our boys are going? What kind of people, customs, places, will they find there? These countries present a new appeal to our minds and to our sentiments!

Furthermore, the daily press is full of references to particular events occurring in special cities or localities. Our interest in all this will be deepened and our knowledge increased if we are able to see pictures of these lands, and of many of these important places. Events presented in the daily papers will thus become visualized. Their reality and significance will be increased. Everyone has read of the great meeting in Moscow of some weeks ago of representatives of the many political factions and interests of Russia. To see beautiful pictures of wonderful Moscow, its streets, and even the building in which this history-making conference was held, will be the next best thing to actually going to Moscow.

Doctor White, who gives these lectures has had the opportunity granted to comparatively few of visiting the warring countries, some of them many times, with camera and note book, and to know at first hand these countries as they were before the war. Doctor White has on Europe and Russia alone over 4,000 finely colored lantern slides, made from his own negatives and covering some of the most important places in these storm-swept countries. From these pictures will be selected for the Sunday evening lectures those bearing most closely on the great conflict.

Our own country will not be overlooked, and the lectures on "Beginnings of the United States," and "The American Struggle for Independence" will illustrate some of the most picturesque and historic sections of our Atlantic coast states.

Inasmuch as these lectures aim to be deeply patriotic, and since everyone is overburdened with the additional expenses due to war conditions, with appeals for Red Cross and Liberty bonds, admission to these lectures will be free. Everyone is welcome who desires to know more intimately the great nations engaged in this great war—a war that will make the world over and set the feet of humanity in new and fairer partways.

Lewis-Champlin Parent-Teachers' Association.

The regular monthly social of the Lewis-Champlain Parent-Teacher association will be held at the school, Friday, Oct. 19th, at 2 p. m. Refreshments and a program. Ladies are invited to bring their work for a good social afternoon. The following ladies are hostesses: Mrs. A. K. Fry, Mrs. C. H. Binney, Mrs. J. D. Drapanes, Mrs. L. H. Lamyon, Mrs. J. V. Saville.

Englewood Woman's Club.

Sociology Department to Meet Monday Morning, October 22, With Prominent Speakers—Mme. Alla Ripley to Display Latest Fashions in Dress in the Afternoon, Preceding a Musical Program.

The chairman of the education department, Mrs. Robert E. Holmes, presided at the first meeting this year of that department October 15.

Reports from the chairmen of the following committees were heard: Mrs. Joseph K. Brittain, on schools; Mrs. Charles F. Weir, special schools; Mrs. W. J. Conley, physical education; Mrs. C. E. Hulbert, American speech, and Mrs. C. E. Williams, home garden. All of these reports were of equal importance and of interest.

Mrs. Addison Moore of the Vocational Supervision league was introduced and gave us a definite idea of their work, which deals with the child labor law. How the boy of fourteen, who having to leave school is put under the guidance of this league, to see that he has at least a fifth grade education, is in good health and has the promise of a job so that he doesn't drift about after leaving school. When it is possible arrangements are made so that he may be kept in school. Aside from this the league looks after handicapped children, those in need and those tubercular. Mrs. Moore in a short time gave us an interesting sketch of this good work in which she is taking so active a part.

Mrs. Holmes then introduced to her listeners a scholar, Benjamin W. Robinson of the University of Chicago, whose subject, "Biblical Element in Literary Efficiency," was beautifully mastered, especially when one must deal with an audience nonsectarian.

"The present day is critical for the Bible, still more critical for us, for the American nation, for us and the American nation, for the appreciation of literature and the values in human life," said Professor Robinson.

"The Bible is being neglected. It has been taken out of our public schools throughout the country, but eventually it will come into a definite Bible school, to which boys will really go, for educational purposes.

"The changing view of the Bible is, that we no longer think it a book without a history, or as a collection of laws for living a life, but in a historical development and as a book of life. It means so much and has made us what we are.

"There are four reasons in which the knowledge of the Bible will help us, first, for knowledge of conversation; second, for the command of the English language. Our greatest English writers found great impetus to the English style in this book. Third, as a piece of literature; not only is it a standard of style but contains all the forms of English literature. Fourth, read the classics, with reference to the Bible. In Tennyson 2,000 references are given and unless you know the former you miss much of the meaning of the latter."

With many other valuable ideas, another profitable morning was enjoyed.

It has been suggested by several in attendance that morning that in the future those not caring to listen to the program would kindly remain silent so that those who were interested might not be disturbed.

Again patriotism reigned at the opening of the program at the afternoon meeting the audience singing the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," enthusiasm somewhat lacking.

Previous to the announcements and business meeting Mrs. Charles Clark, president, surprised many by introducing Mr. Percy Boynton of the literature department of the University of Chicago, who gave a splendid talk on the Liberty loan, after which Mrs. Frederick Nichols, secretary, gave her report, followed by short reports from the various chairmen of committees.

Mrs. Charles Leigh of the art and literature department announced an exhibit of allied arts and crafts, given by the Woman's clubs of the Third district at the Normal school under her supervision the afternoon of October 31, November 1 and 2. The object of this is to promote an interest in handmade articles. On the former day a reception will be held with the club presidents in the receiving line.

Mrs. C. G. Kindred of the sociology department is desirous of some partially worn clothing for her charges at Davis square.

Mrs. Enlette announced a rummage sale to be given November 1 and 2 for the benefit of the Englewood Union hospital. Old shoes, clothing and furniture are desired and those having such donations see either Mrs. Franklin Enlette or Mrs. Edgar James.

Two reasons why Mrs. R. M. Reed wishes the names of the sons or grandsons of the members of the club: First, to make an honor roll of the mothers; second, to find the boys who are stationed in Illinois so that some hospitality may be extended to them in the towns where they are located. Many of these boys come from towns where hospitality is their first thought.

Mrs. Guy Guernsey wishes the names of ladies who will be hostess to two soldiers or sailors for a Sunday hospitality, including dinner. This is a thought to be worth repeating and may appear several times during the weeks to follow.

A very fine report was made by Mrs. C. J. Owen regarding the Red Cross auxiliary of the club. They have made many very useful articles and it must be a pleasure for them to know that their work is so well done that inspection is not necessary.

The efficient treasurer, Mrs. Willis E. Tower, read a splendid report.

The club voted the following to be paid:

Twenty-five dollars for the Infant Welfare association; $25 for Vocational Supervision league, $10 for July 4th celebration at Hamilton Park this year, $3.50 for soldiers' rally at the Champlin school, $25 for sewing machine for Red Cross, $25 for social work at the Englewood high school, $25 for library extension for the army camps.

The above shows that the club has not ceased its activities.

Monday morning, October 22, Mr. John D. Shoop, superintendent of schools, will speak on "Educating the Foreigner," and Mr. A. T. Campbell, director of Davis square, will tell of "Conditions Back of the Yards;" Mrs. C. G. Kindred of the sociology department presiding. In the afternoon George Knackstedt, pianist, and Joseph Huelpner, violinist, will present the musical program. "Art and Economy of Dress" will be discussed by Mme. Alla Ripley. Her gowns, of which she is the designer, will be worn by 16 members of the junior members of the club. Mrs. Martin Edinger will be hostess.

Optimistic Thought.

A prince of talent will recognize the talent of others.

ENGLEWOOD HAPPENINGS.

Mrs. P. E. Moore, 530 W. Marquette Rd., is ill at her home.

Albert Whitmer of 452 60th St. left Tuesday for Camp Grant, Rockford.

The Home Unit will meet next week on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Geo. B. Adams, 6619 Wentworth Ave.

Miss Helen Kindred, who has been spending a few days with her parents, has returned to Eureka College for continuation of study.

Mr. W. P. Keeler and family, 6844 Normal Blvd., are spending a few days of recreation at Whitehall, Mich.

Mrs. C. P. Swanson of 6642 Lafayette Ave., and her daughter, Mrs. P. E. Moore, have returned from a visit at Burlington, Iowa.

The ladies of the Englewood M. E. church will sew at the church today for the Red Cross. Luncheon will be served by the Woman's Home Missionary society.

George Durst, age 61, died Monday at his late residence, 5345 Princeton Av., and the funeral was held Wednesday afternoon. Interment at Mount Greenwood.

Mr. Charles Medberry of Des Moines, Ia., will deliver the address at the Bible school dinner to be given at the Christian church this evening. An excellent program has been prepared and a time worth while is awaiting all.

The C. C. Club met with Mrs. Carson of 448 62nd St. last Thursday week. A very delightful afternoon was enjoyed. The next meeting will be next Thursday, with Mrs. Marion Dugger of 6427 Stewart Ave.

A social meeting of the Community Club of Englewood will meet with Mrs. W. Robinson of 503 61st Pl., Tuesday afternoon, October 23rd. The program will be given by Mrs. Lillian French Read, soprano, and Miss Mary Summers, dramatic reader.

The Musicale and Entertainment circle was entertained Wednesday at luncheon at the home of Miss Virginia Thearle, 6031 Kimbark Ave. Assisting hostesses, Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Acomb.

Mrs. A. Louis Kuchnsted of 2748 Hampden Ct. entertained 30 boys of the Great Lakes Training station Saturday evening, October 6, at which the Beta chapter of the Lambda Tau Delta sorority were also guests. A most enjoyable time was reported by all.

Mr. Kirby Page, who has been at the front both in England and France, and has seen things as they were, gave a very vivid discription of his experiences at the Christian church last Sunday evening. He has been associated with the Y. M. C. A.

There will be a church dinner at the Christian church this evening. Rev. Medbury of the Des Moines Christian church will be present and a patriotic program has been arranged after the dinner. A general good time is looked forward to.

An illustrated lecture under the auspices of the Chicago chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, for the benefit of the Dixie Ambulance Fund, will be given at the Washington Park Baptist church, 6026 Prairie Ave., Friday evening, October the 19th.

A series of Sunday evening lectures will be given at the Normal Park Baptist church by the minister, Rev. Robert W. Van Kirk, relating to the questions of Personal, Social and Political conduct. The choir will furnish appropriate music.

The Englewood friends of Henry S. Wilde, formerly in business at the corner of 63rd St. and Normal Blvd., has connected with the New City Packing Co. at 4737-39 S. Ashland Ave., and invites any and all his old pals to give him a call any time they happen to be in his neighborhood.

Normal L Beauty Shop. Tel., Wentworth, 4455. Electrical massages. Medicated steam facials, special for blackheads and pimples. Shampooing, marcel waving, manicuring, chiropody. 518 W. 69th St., next door to L. station. —Adv. 10-26.

North Carolina Colony of the Illinois Colony Club will hold their annual fort day at the LaSalle Hotel on October 30 at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Eleanor Leinen is chief and has spared no effort to make this the best fort day ever given by this club. The Misses Rathje will dance.

Mrs. Charles Jegen, Mrs. Harry Monut, and Mrs. Heran D. Currier are co-chairmen of a card party to be given in the Masonic Temple, 6734 Wentworth Ave., on Wednesday, October 31, at 2 p. m., for the Oak Haven Home for Aged. Euchre, bridge and "500" will be played.

Matta K. Legler, who has written a very patriotic song which is being sung in the Y. M. C. A. camps all over the country, is meeting with great success. The arrangements for the band parts is being arranged by our Will A. Harding, 6423 Stewart Ave., and will be played at the big Wilson meeting on the 20th.

Martha Ammen tent No. 20, Daughters of Veterans, will hold a sale of aprons and fancy goods on the afternoon and evening of October 24, at G. A. R. hall, 6232 Princeton Ave. Card party in the evening. Show your patriotism by attending this affair. The proceeds are used to assist worthy veterans of the Civil war.

The regular monthly executive meeting of the Englewood Division of Christian Endeavor will be held on Tuesday evening, October 23rd, 1917, at the North Congregational Church, 59th and La Salle Sts. Supper will be served at 6:45 sharp. Back up the division by bringing out a large delegation.

The fifteenth annual reunion, reception and banquet of the Englewood Old Settlers' Association will be held at the Masonic Temple, 6734 Wentworth Ave., next Thursday evening. A most excellent program has been prepared, together with those things that satisfy the inner man. A reception will be given at from 6 to 7 and the march to the dining room will move at prompt 7 o'clock. The gathering will be strictly informal and any resident who has been in Englewood prior to 1893 is eligible. "Get on your old gray bonnet," etc.

We must decline to publish the account of a wonderful operation performed recently by an Englewood surgeon restoring a patient's face which was blown off in an explosion. It is opposed to the physician's code of ethics to advertise, and it is against our code of ethics to advertise without pay. Besides, the article is more fitted for a medical journal than a local paper.

Save your furniture and labor. Let us polish your furniture in your home. We use the best polish on the market. First-class work guaranteed at reasonable rates. We are experts at this work. Write or phone. H. Krueger, 6817 Wentworth Ave. Phone Went. 2291. All orders promptly attended to.

Hyman-Brand have opened a watch, clock and jewelry repair shop in the Merrick Bldg., 357 W. 63rd St., second floor, room 206. Ask the elevator man. On account of low rent we are reducing the cost of repair work. Please call and get an estimate. We do not carry a jewelry stock, but you can order through our catalogue and by so doing you can make your purchases at greatly reduced prices. Open evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert DuVal of 421 60th St. are home from an exciting fishing trip in the Bay City, Mich., country and Bert has some dandy perch to show as proof as to his statements regarding his many catches. Mrs. DuVal has been visiting relatives and friends at Detroit, Rochester and other points for about three weeks, and Bert stole a march and took a ten days' flyer.

The national convention of Christian churches will be held in Kansas City, beginning next Wednesday, and convening a week. It will be attended by the following from Englewood: Mrs. S. J. Williams, 245 Marquette Rd.; Mrs. S. J. Russell, 6137 Kimbark Ave.; Mrs. Newton, 249 Marquette Rd.; Dr. Frances Cook, 7801 Peoria St., and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hollway, 7022 Princeton Ave.

At the state capital there were many White Sox rooters, and as much enthusiasm before the half-dozen boards as on the real field. When the fourth inning Saturday showed a decided slump for the Giants a visiting Chicagoan hurried home and secured his "Lucky Monkey" and held it tight until the game was won for the Sox. The many Chicagoans here had a regular celebration Monday evening when the championship was decided in their favor.

Sunshine club met at the home of Mrs. J. Banks, 6720 Parnell Ave., on October 12. Fair attendance and a number of visitors. Several things were planned for the near future, one being a pound party November 15 at the home of Mrs. F. Lewis, 531 65th Pl., for the benefit of the Women's Shelter. After the business meeting all got busy knitting and sewing for the sailor boys until the hostess served dainty refreshments, when we departed to our respective homes feeling we had spent a useful afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry R. Walker, 6637 Normal Park Blvd., celebrated their golden wedding, receiving 1,000 friends at two receptions held in the Eastern Star clubrooms of the Masonic Temple. One gathering was held in the afternoon and the other in the evening. Three children and four grandchildren assisted them. Mr. Walker, a veteran of the civil war and prominent in Masonic circles, and Mrs. Walker have two grandsons now in the army, one in the aviation corps and the other with the First Illinois Infantry at Camp Logan.

The board of education, through the evening school department, in co-operation with the Signal corps of the United States army, is offering instruction in telegraphy to men registered for the draft. A class is being organized in the Englewood high school, which will meet four evenings of the week, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, at 7:30. Any man registered for the draft is eligible for admission to the class. When a student has attained a reasonable proficiency in sending and receiving by the continental code, and is called out for service, he may have the choice of going into the Signal corps.

The American Telephone and Telegraph company and its associated companies, forming the Bell system, announce a subscription in behalf of themselves and their employees for $5,000,000 to the second Liberty loan. This subscription is to be allotted to localities or sections of the country as nearly as may be in proportion to the quotas assigned by the treasury department to the various federal reserve districts, so that each such district will get credit for its proportionate share of the total sum. The actual subscriptions will be made in each locality by the associated company operating in such locality.

Mr. James W. Rupp, for many years a respected citizen of Englewood, passed away Tuesday evening, October 9, at his residence, 221 60th St., of carsinoma. He had been ill for two weeks and the best of doctors and nurses were in constant attendance, but were able only to alleviate the pain. He was a New York Central engineer, having been an employee of that road for more than thirty years. He was a member of Division 545 of the B. of L. E., and their regard for him was proved by the many acts of kindness and sympathy during the brief illness. The remains were taken to Blissfield, Mich., for burial Thursday morning and services were held at the home Wednesday evening, where the sympathy of friends was shown by the beautiful floral offerings and the attendance at his funeral. Fifteen members of the B. of L. E. and the G. I. A. accompanied the widow on the sad journey to the last resting place, where they were met by his brother, L. E. Rupp of Sandusky, O., and other relatives and friends.

The days when four walls with a roof over them made a building has gone by, and it is pleasant to note the patriotic local pride of Mr. Cunningham in building so attractive a building as he has at Normal Blvd and Englewood Ave. The private chapel is naturally the feature of the structure, and it is being visited by interested parties from all over the country, who are anxious to see this latest addition to genteel undertaking and funeral direction. The store rooms and offices are built in harmony with the corner chapel and are not incongruous in any sense, but really add to the completeness of the building. Mr. Cunningham naturally is proud of his building and will take pleasure in showing anyone interested through the structure at any time.

District 75, National Army.

The relatives and friends of the soldiers and sailors residing in the district under the jurisdiction of Board 75 (approximately the territory between State St. and Loomis St. on the east and west, and 67th St. and 74th St. on the north and south) are going to hold a meeting in the Parker Practice School Gymnasium, (Normal School Grounds) Stewart Ave., just north of 69th St., Friday evening, Oct. 19th, at 8 o'clock to effect a permanent organization with the purpose of providing for the comfort of the enlisted men. You are invited and urged to be present to help in this movement.

This is a great cause in which we are all enlisted. The young men have gone out to risk their lives at the call of their country. Those of us who stay home must do all we can to help them, and there is much that we can do. We must do this together. It is important that all the soldiers and sailors from this district shall be equally well cared for. Let us make this a great patriotic service.

A perfectly definite program of things to be done will be worked out. There will be plenty for each one to do, and no one will be left in doubt as to his duty or as to how to perform it. This goes for both men and women.

There will be brief addresses and patriotic singing, but the great purpose of the meeting will be to organize for effective work.

Remember the date, Friday, the 19th. Come and bring all your friends!

Mrs. George Haskell, Wm. Jackson,
Wm. D. Byrne, chairman.
PUBLICITY COMMITTEE.

Great Fire Loss.

The annual loss by fire in New York city is said to amount to $6,000,000.

The Englewood Sunday Evening Club.

The first two meetings of the Englewood Sunday Evening club were a great success. The message of Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth on her splendid work of prison reform was listened to by over 1,200 people, and last Sunday evening we were more than repaid by listening to Hon. Herbert S. Bigelow as he unfolded to us a program of human justice.

It is with great pleasure that we announce as our guest and speaker next Sunday evening Mr. Fred B. Smith of New York city, his subject being, "America's Greatest Sin." This is Mr. Smith's third appearance before the club. Englewood has a personal interest in Mr. Smith, for he lived here some years ago, was a member of the Pilgrim Congregational church, and was ordained to the Christian ministry in that church. His ministry, however, led him into Y. M. C. A. work, and as one of the staff of the international committee of the Y. M. C. A. he has traveled many times around the world. He was secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Sioux Falls, Ia., for three years, and general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Dubuque, Ia., for five years. Following this, for two years he engaged in evangelistic work, and then was sent by the international committee of the Y. M. C. A. to the army camp at Chickamauga in 1898, later going to Cuba on a similar mission among the soldiers there. From 1899 to 1901 he visited the various cities of Europe and America, urging with marked success greater emphasis on religious work. In 1910 he originated and became the leader of the movement known as the "Men and Religion Forward Movement," in which task Mr. Raymond Robbins of this city, and others, gave large assistance. Today he is identified as a business man with the Johns-Manville company of New York city, an organization doing business throughout the country. He is preeminently a speaker to men, and we are quite sure that the men of Englewood will be more than repaid for their attendance upon our meeting next Sunday evening.

Our soloist for the evening is Miss Margery Maxwell of the First Congregational church quartette of Evanston. Miss Maxwell has delighted us before, and it is with pleasure that we look forward to her presence with us again.

Remember that we meet in the Englewood Presbyterian church, and that the doors of the church open at 6:45 o'clock. At 7:15 there is a 15-minute organ recital, and our service commences promptly at 7:30. The church is located at the corner of Yale Ave. and West 64th St.
